The Babbling Bruch

To all Graduates: Congratulations & God's Blessings! I hope that you are excited and looking forward to this wonderful journey you begin as you enter a new challenge discovering who you are and the decisions you will make. Be sure to remember to invite the Lord along your journey.

Home is where they must let you in when you have need of it. So is the Church – the doors are always open, and so if you walk away for a time, remember to come home. Remember the Lord is counting on you to tell others about Him by your words and your actions.

For quite a few years most dioceses have transferred celebrating the Feast of Ascension on the 7th Sunday of Easter (next Sunday) instead of this coming Thursday. For those making a Novena to the Holy Spirit as the Apostles did anticipating Pentecost, Thursday would be a good day to begin that prayer.
