The Babbling Bruch

Today we celebrate the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven. He has physically left, yet remains. We are daily called to keep in mind his life, death and Resurrection every time we celebrate the Eucharist - and invite him more deeply into our lives, with a deeper awareness of his presence.

We had our first cluster meeting this past week, with representatives from St. Columbkille's, Churdan, St. Joseph's, Jefferson, St. Brigid's, Grand Junction, St. John's Ogden, Sacred Heart Boone, and St. Malachy's Madrid. Thank you to the ladies of St. John's for providing the group with food and drink!

More meetings are scheduled, and I beg all to please keep praying for a fruitful outcome, as we strive to make recommendations to the Bishop that will help all deepen our faith.

ABC (attic, basement, closet) sales at Sacred Heart in Boone next weekend. Ladies: bring anything you wish to discard - be sure to bring your husbands!
