The Babbling Bruch

It is always a happy day when the Bishop comes to the out-posts of the Diocese to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on our young people. So often we take for granted all the work and preparation that parents, sponsors, teachers in the Confirmation Program and Youth Group and Religious Education directors do to help prepare for this Sacrament. Sincere thanks to all. I have committed myself to witness the Marriage of a nephew this weekend, and so Fr. Jim Tigges will be leading the Worship at St. Malachy's and St. John's. I do believe this will be the last wedding for a niece or nephew that I will commit to witness. I need to learn to say no.

I was very well pleased with both the Pastoral Council meeting and Finance committee meeting this past week at Sacred Heart. In all the parishes I have served in, I have found such good leaders who have stepped forward to use their gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God. Blessings, blessings, blessings.

Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) is a personal and parish spiritual renewal process. As Catholics, we are called to witness to one another the amazing things God has done for us. The CRHP process allows us to do just that—take a break from our busy lives, share our faith with others, and get to know God through his works.

"In a gentle way, You can shake the World."

- Ghandi

The St. Joseph's Education Society is a fund of the Diocese of Sioux City that provides for the education of our seminarians, and the continuing formation of all our clergy. As most of you know, higher education is expensive. Our current seminarians are devout and holy men, and I am greatly encouraged every time I have the chance to be with them, because I know that they will serve our diocese very well, in the future. We need more such seminarians, and we need more support for their priestly formation, so that the Church will always grow and thrive here in Iowa. Quality and timely speakers for retreats, clergy days of reflection, and other programs of formation can also be somewhat costly. We all rely on the priests and deacons assigned to our parishes. We need them to be well-formed, so that their devotion to the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ will bear good fruit in you, the faithful, whom they serve. We all benefit from the opportunities the Diocese strives to offer them, to grow in their own formation, in order to serve you better. This weekend, at all Masses for the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 5 and 6, we will take up the special collection for this St. Joseph's Education fund. This is an annual collection, because our needs for seminarian and clergy formation continue every year. Please consider prayerfully your contribution to this important collection. Most especially, I ask you to continue to pray for all our current and future priests and deacons. May God bless you for your devotion and generosity.

Your brother in Christ,

Most Reverend R. Walker Nickless

Bishop of Sioux City

The St. John's Religious Education program would like to start a Religious Education library! Students will be able to check out items each week to take home and share with their families! Support Expecting Mothers

Playpens are set up at St. Malachy's to collect diapers, blankets, baby clothes and other items for newborns. Items will be taken to Birthright in Ames. After mass on November 4 and 5, the Knights of Columbus will be handing out tootsie pops and collecting money to donate to Birthright to purchase baby items. Expecting mothers turn to Birthright for initial support. Please support a Culture of Life.

The Social Justice Committee is sponsoring the annual Angel Giving Tree to benefit those who receive food baskets from Greater Love Ministries during the Holiday Season. The tree will be on display from Nov. 1st- early December in the main entrance of church. It will also be on display during the Harvest Religious Education Dinner on November 15. Donated items requested are gift cards/certificates from The Market of Madrid and Dollar General in amounts of $10 and $15 again this year. Purchased gift cards/certificates can be dropped off at church or the church office or given to any Social Justice Committee member. Thank you for your generous support and prayers of this service opportunity and of those needing a little extra help this Christmas Season in our community.
