The Babbling Bruch

I may soon be the blubbering Bruch, but here goes.

I have been appointed Administrator of Sacred Heart Parish in Boone, along with my present assignment here at St.
Malachy's and St. John's.

However, help is on the way. Fr. Paul Nguyen, a missionary priest, raised in Boone, will be here the 11th of October to begin working with me in these three parishes. As administrator of Sacred Heart, I am told I have all the privileges and duties of a pastor, just not in name.

I had thought I would stay living at St.
Malachy's, but am checking on the perhaps more practical solution to live at Sacred Heart and work out a schedule with Fr. Paul once he arrives.

I plan to meet with the Parish Directors of all three parishes as soon as possible to discuss the living situation.

Please remember this in your prayers. I suspect this will be in effect until next June/July. ☺
