Sacred Heart School News

Beloved School Janitor, Mr. Jim, Retires

My staff and I wish to thank Jim Geotzinger for his unending dedication to "our little school building." He has been with us for somewhere around 20+ years and has become a constant we simply expect to see everyday. I confess, it has not been the same since he retired—we miss our daily news updates and friendly smile! Jim, we wish for you all the best in your retirement. Please know that you are a permanent part of our Sacred Heart Family and we will continue to hold you close in our prayers. God's blessings on you and your family ~ Mrs. Eldridge

Deacon Darwin

Deacon Darwin Messerly has been working here at Sacred Heart for 15years. He has decided that it is time for him to take a break for a bit of time for prayer and reflection. Deacon Darwin has asked for a three-month sabbatical to 'go to the dessert' for some spiritual renewal. We are very grateful for all that Deacon Darwin has done here at Sacred Heart and we ask God's blessings and protection on this great adventure. He will be returning to Boone in early February.
